

How to Interact with Survey Magnet

By Survey Magnet

Dated: Sep 02, 2009

The interactive community known as Survey Magnet is clearing the air about how to interact with the site.

The launch of Survey Magnet was met with a rash of enthusiasm. Site members and participants were immediately drawn to the format.

The formula is simple: a survey is posted every day and users interact with each other based on their opinions and circumstances.

Along the way several users have expressed confusion as to what Survey Magnet expects from its user community. Here is what Survey Magnet expects from users in black and white:

- 1) Take the daily survey.
- 2) Post your opinion in the comment section. Interact with other users. If you agree with someone's opinion then co-sign in the comments section. If you don't agree then let them know that. Don't be afraid to engage in a back and forth discussion. The Survey Magnet team is incredibly liberal with what they allow on the site.
- 3) Have fun and bring your personality to your comments.
- 4) Come back daily to repeat the process and pass the site along to everyone else that you know.
